Feast of the Holy Family

THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY & JOSEPH

"The shepherds went in haste, and found Mary and Joseph and the Infant lying in a manger."

(Luke 2.16)

Weekly Biblical Reflection

"Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt."

Today, the Church places before us the Holy Family as a model family. Not a picture-perfect family, but a real family navigating uncertainty, fear, and sacrifice. Sounds like our families who don't feel very "holy" most days. We are busy, stretched thin, sometimes even fragile. That is exactly where God chooses to dwell.

Today, the Holy Family is on the move. They are refugees, fleeing violence and crossing borders. Joseph doesn't receive a long explanation from God, just a simple, urgent instruction: Get up, take the child and his mother, and go. So Joseph goes. No questions or any complaints. Just quiet, faithful obedience.

Sounds like most of us. Getting up in the middle of the night, doing what needs to be done, and trusting God with the rest.

The Holy Family teaches us that our families don't have to be perfect. Jesus grew up in a home that knew displacement, danger, manual labor, and silence. It is there in the ordinary routines and struggles of family life that salvation unfolds.

For those families already in a good place than today is a call to gratitude. For those whose families are wounded, distant, or complicated, it offers a word of hope.

God doesn't work through families because they are flawless, but because love is stronger than weakness. That is where you will hear God's voice.

- Deacon Kevin
