ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help. Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Saviour!"

(Cf. Psalm 26.7, 9)

Weekly Biblical Reflection

"At the sight of the crowds, Jesus' heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd." (Matthew 9:36)

Dear brothers and sisters in the Lord:

This past Friday, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is one of my favourite feasts in the liturgical calendar because it reminds us of our Lord's closeness to us all. When many think about God, they imagine him to be so far away that he is inaccessible to us. However, he is closer to us than the air we breathe. His Sacred Heart is made of real flesh and blood. It beats just like ours, but unlike ourselves, he is without blemish or spot. Christ is LOVE incarnate.

Jesus Christ is completely selfless. Even in the midst of his own fatigue and suffering, he continues to keep his gaze directed towards his Heavenly Father and towards each one of us. This Sunday's gospel reveals once again the depth of his compassionate love. He looks at the crowds. He sees inside each of their hearts. He knows their joys, sorrows, fears, and suffering like only he can. Matthew tells us that his heart was moved with pity. This means that he experiences sorrow because we suffer. How can one not feel love for Christ in return? Especially since he not only feels pity for us, but he also provides comfort, strength, and peace in the midst of our troubles.

He also sends us collaborators in his mission of drawing all people to himself. He called the twelve apostles. He also calls each one of us. Every baptized person is called to share in the mission of proclaiming Christ's love to everyone. We are called to comfort one another. Maybe you are afraid to share your faith for fear of rejection. Imagine if the apostles didn't? We would not be here today. The Sacred Heart of Jesus has your name written in His heart. He wants to add many more names to it.

God bless, Fr Peter

Announcements

1. Post-Cana: Marriage Enrichment Workshop

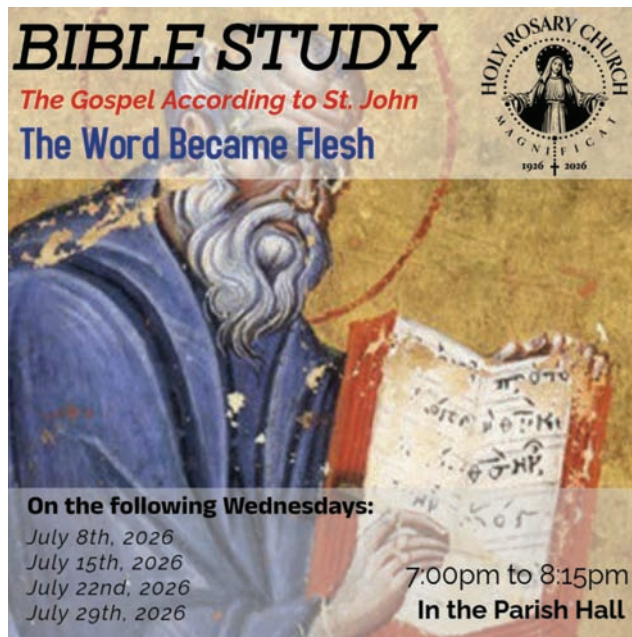

How can we maintain the joy and love of Christ between spouses, long after the wedding day? Deacon Kevin and his wife, Gigetta, will lead a Marriage Enrichment

Workshop from June 2026 to January 2027, every 2nd Thursday of the month (no meetings in July & August), from 7:00 to 8:15 PM in the Parish Hall. To register, please contact Deacon Kevin at deaconkevin@holyrosary.ca

2. The next Seniors' Lunch and Learn will take place on Wednesday, June 17, at 1 PM in the Parish Hall. Rebecca Rizzo, Museum Coordinator, will bring you back to 1833, and you will learn about the lost art of letter writing. Please register with a member of the Seniors' committee after all the masses this weekend.

3. Holy Rosary Parish is seeking dedicated volunteers to join the Eucharistic Ministry. This Ministry is very special, as the volunteer is expected to administer the Eucharistic Lord to fellow parishioners, both during the Mass as well as visiting homebound parishioners. If you are interested and feel the call from God to participate in this ministry, please email Fr. Peter at pturrone@archtoronto.org for an interview.

4. Fr. Peter will take us through the Gospel of John on four consecutive Wednesdays. Join us starting on July 8th, at 7 PM in the Parish Hall.
