TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Turn your ear, O Lord, and answer me; save the servant who trusts in you, my God. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long." (Cf. Psalm 85. 1-3)

Weekly Biblical Reflection

"I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder; when he opens, no one shall shut, when he shuts, no one shall open." (Isaiah 22: 22)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

During King Solomon's reign, he established an important office whereby he appointed a second in command to take charge of all of his possessions. The man who fulfilled this role wore a key around his neck that would grant access to every room in the King's home. When he died, the authority did not end with him. The King had established it as an office. It was a ministry that was meant to endure. In other words, the keys of the palace were handed over to his successor.

In today's Gospel, Jesus, the Eternal Son of God, grants Peter the keys to his Kingdom which has no end. "I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." (Mt 16:19) Jesus, King of the Universe, gives Peter authority on earth to help guide Christ's Church throughout history. The Pope, which literally means "Father", has the task to teach authoritatively and proclaim the Gospel to all people. He has been given the task to faithfully preserve the teachings handed unto to us by Christ through his apostles. He also has the authority to teach infallibly regarding faith and morals. All Catholics are obligated to accept and live all of the Catechism, not just what is easy.

Pope Leo is the 267th Pope of the Catholic Church. He is the successor of St Peter. He was given the "keys" by the College of Cardinals who elected him in 2025. His task is great, and the challenges are many. The world and Church are deeply divided. As Catholics, we are called to pray daily for the Holy Father.

Let us pray...

O God, shepherd and ruler of all the faithful,
look favourably on your servant Leo.

Grant, we pray, that by word and example
he may be of service to those over whom he presides
so that, together with the flock entrusted to his care, he may come to everlasting life.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

God bless, Fr. Peter

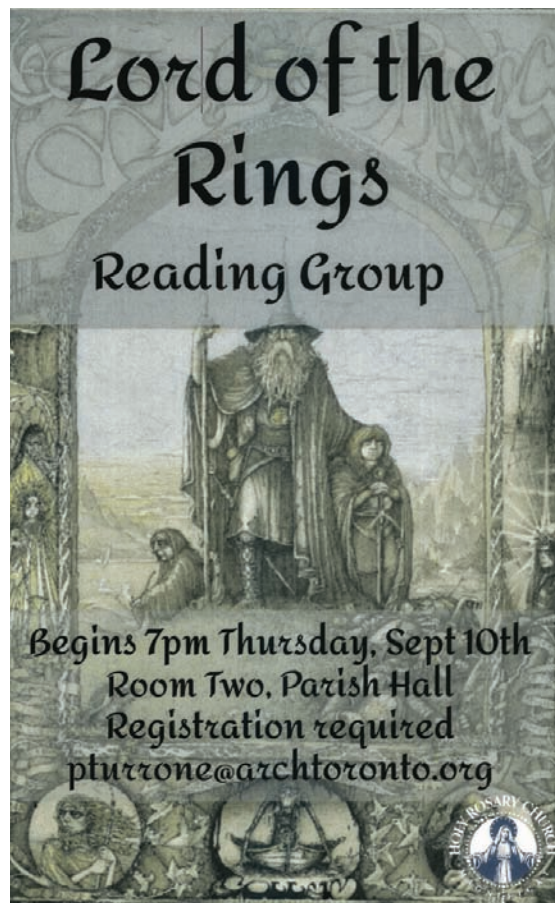

Announcements

1. Dear Members of Holy Rosary Parish,

I will be with you this weekend, August 22-23, 2026, to make a Mission Appeal for our missions in the Dominican Republic and the Philippines. If you would like to learn more about the Adrian Dominicans or to see pictures of our Motherhouse in Adrian, Michigan, please go to our website: www.adriandominicans.org

To introduce myself: I have been a Dominican Sister for 65 years. Most of my life work has been in Catholic grade and high schools as a teacher and an administrator in Detroit, Chicago, Boston, and Clarksburg, West Virginia.

The Sisters minister in a variety of professions that flow from the traditional works of education, health care, and social work. Today we are involved in a variety of works trying to address the critical needs of society and serve wherever we are called. We are committed to the vision that calls us to seek truth, make peace, and reverence life. I look forward to meeting you and telling you about our work in these two countries. Wishing you many blessings. Sister Mary Kay Homan, OP
