ALL SAINTS

"Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God."

Weekly Biblical Reflection

"After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice: 'Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb." (Revelation 7:9-10)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I must confess that this is one of my most cherished solemnities. Today the Church commemorates all those men, women, and children who loved the Lord Jesus with their whole heart, mind, and soul while on earth (cf. Matthew 22:37). This feast reminds us that the call to holiness is extended to every baptized person, and not merely to a select few. Whether living in the married state, in ordained ministry, in consecrated life, or in the single state, each of us is called to glorify God by living a life worthy of the Gospel. Throughout her history, the Catholic Church has raised to the altars men and women from every condition of life: scholars and sovereigns, priests and religious, persons with disabilities, those who had once lived in grave sin, individuals who struggled with addiction, the uneducated, and even the homeless and mentally afflicted. In every case, these saints turned away from sin and fixed their gaze and hearts upon Jesus Christ.

How do we celebrate this day? My suggestion is that we first discover more about our patron saint. Most of us have been named after a saint, yet few of us know their story. The saints are literally our friends in heaven — they take our prayers and offer them to the Lord on our behalf. Then, get to know more of them. Our parish library is filled with biographies and autobiographies of the saints. Pray with them to the Triune God, our sole object of worship. They will help us on our way to heaven one day.

God bless, Fr. Peter
